My son, Ben de Hymel Cabell, will be studying and travelling in Western Europe this summer. He plans to depart from New York on Tuesday, 21 June, via chartered airline, arriving in Brussels on 22 June. He plans to arrive in London 23 June, and will depart either 25 or 29 June for France. He will remain in France until about 6 or 7 July, mainly in or around Paris. He intends to arrive in Switzerland on 10 July and will be at the University of Fribourg until 20 August. After school he tentatively plans to visit Italy and will depart from Rome on 29 August via chartered aircraft.

I have instructed him that in the event of an emergency he should contact the Air Attache and that the Air Attache will in turn put him in touch with you.

I hope the need will not arise, but in the event it does, I shall be personally grateful for any help which you may be able to extend to him. Let me emphasize that he is strictly on his own and will require no assistance except in an emergency. Should you have to extend him any financial aid, please let me know and I will reimburse you immediately.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

SIGNED

C. P. Cabell
